

PERMANENT MISSION
OF THE PRINCIPALITY OF LIECHTENSTEIN

Norwegian Ministry
of Foreign Affairs

The Permanent Missions of Australia, Liechtenstein and Norway to the United Nations in Geneva in partnership with the Freedom Fund and Walk Free Foundation cordially invite you to a high-level reception during the UN Forum on Business and Human Rights on the topic

Two roads converge: Linking the modern slavery and business and human rights agendas on Tuesday 26 November 2019 from 18:30 – 20:00

at InterContinental Geneva Chemin du Petit-Saconnex 7-9, Geneva

Kindly send your RSVP and any dietary restrictions to Events.Geneva@dfat.gov.au by Tuesday 19 November

PERMANENT MISSION
OF THE PRINCIPALITY OF LIECHTENSTEIN

Norwegian Ministry
of Foreign Affairs

The Permanent Mission of Australia, Liechtenstein and Norway to the United Nations in Geneva in partnership with the Freedom Fund and Walk Free Foundation present:

«Two roads converge: Linking the modern slavery and business and human rights agendas» with a special view on the

Liechtenstein Initiative for a Financial Sector Commission on Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking

www.fastinitiative.org

The Freedom Fund, Minderoo Foundation's Walk Free Initiative, Permanent Mission of the Principality of Liechtenstein, the Permanent Mission of Australia, and the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs invite you to a reception with leading actors working at the intersection of the business and human rights and modern slavery arenas. Speakers will represent leading philanthropies as well as Ambassadors and representatives from various governments working to drive reform across these agendas.

Speakers

Ms Michelle Bachelet, United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights
Ms Marianne Hagen, Norwegian State Secretary of Foreign Affairs
H.E. Mr Peter Matt, Permanent Representative of Liechtenstein to the United Nations Office at Geneva
Mr Bryce Hutchesson, Ambassador for People Smuggling and Human Trafficking for Australia
Mr Chris Evans, Government Engagement Lead, Walk Free Initiative
Mr Amol Mehra, Managing Director, Freedom Fund