Universal Periodic Review of Myanmar

25 January 2021

Intervention by H.E. Peter Matt

Permanent Representative of Liechtenstein

In a constructive spirit, Liechtenstein recommends that Myanmar

1. Conduct prompt, independent and thorough investigations into all allegations of violations of international humanitarian law, including into conduct that may constitute war crimes and crimes against humanity in Rakhine and Chin States, and all allegations of human rights violations, and ensure that perpetrators are brought to justice through transparent and credible processes.
2. Acknowledge that sexual crimes have occurred in Rakhine State and other parts of the country, take concrete measures to identify perpetrators and hold them accountable and ensure health-care and psychosocial services for survivors.
3. Amend the Citizenship Law of 1982, removing links between ethnicity and citizenship, and restore the citizenship of the Rohingya.
4. Fully cooperate with all UN human rights entities and mechanisms, including the Independent Investigative Mechanism for Myanmar and the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Myanmar, as well as with the International Criminal Court and the International Court of Justice.

We thank you.
