Liechtenstein welcomes the distinguished delegation of Argentina and wishes to thank for the information provided in the introductory statement and in the national report.

In a constructive spirit, Liechtenstein recommends that Argentina

1. Adopt a comprehensive law on juvenile justice consistent with the Convention on the Rights of the Child and international standards on juvenile justice,
2. Ensure that all offences of trafficking in persons are promptly, effectively and impartially investigated, tried and punished and that victims of trafficking have access to effective remedy,
3. Establish shelters and safe houses that provide suitable accommodation for victims of sexual and gender-based violence,

We wish you a successful UPR. Thank you.
