Liechtenstein welcomes the distinguished delegation of Cameroon and wishes to thank for the information provided in the introductory statement and in the national report.

In a constructive spirit, Liechtenstein recommends that Cameroon

1. Ratify the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court in its 2010 version.
2. Ratify the Optional Protocol of the Convention against Torture.
3. Take credible steps towards the full and legal abolition of the death penalty.
4. Carry out effective, thorough and impartial investigations into all reported cases of killings, enforced disappearances, intimidation and harassment of, and threats and reprisals against, human rights defenders, journalists and members of civil society organizations.
5. Repeal legal provisions, including in the Civil Code, that discriminate against women or bar women from certain types of jobs.

We wish Cameroon a successful UPR. I thank you.
